REGULAR SEASON PRACTICE ACCESS

- Standard practice time will be 11:00 a.m. and game day skates at 10:30 a.m. Please note practice times may vary. We will make every effort to inform you in the event of a schedule change.
- The dressing room will remain closed before and during practice. When the dressing room door is closed, access is not permitted.
- Access to the dressing room will be granted following practice per NHL regulations: five minutes following first group of players (who participated in the practice) leaving the ice for no less than 30 minutes. In the event of a meeting, the dressing room will be open until the meeting begins and again following the meeting for at least 30 minutes.
- Media access is permitted in the main locker room and foyer.
- Media access to the home players' bench is not permitted during practice.
- Bob Hartley will be available within 20 minutes following practice in a media conference format in a designated area near the dressing room. Individual interview (one-on-one) requests will only be granted in special circumstances and on advance notice.

GAME DAY AND POST-GAME

- On request, players will be available to the media for interviews for a 30 minute period up to 90 minutes prior to game time. Preferably, media interviews should be conducted following the morning practice.
- Requests for players/coaches for broadcast pre-tape interviews must be made to the communications department before 11:00 a.m. on game day. In the case of "quick hits", please provide with at least two minutes remaining in the period with a back-up option.
- Dressing room will open to media five minutes after the game with same areas as stated above available for interviews.
- Bob Hartley will be available (in a media conference format) within 20 minutes of the conclusion of the game. The post game media conference will take place in the media lounge. The dressing room will remain open during the coach's press conference.
- Please request credentials 24 hours in advance of the game to which you have been assigned to cover. In the case of full-time credential media, please inform us, when possible, if you are not attending a particular game.

PHOTOGRAPHY/TELEVISION CAMERAS

- Please follow credential guidelines outlined above. Freelance photographers will only be granted credentials when on assignment from a media outlet.
- Photographers/Cameras are permitted to shoot Flames practice from the visiting team bench or stands only.
- Television rightsholders may place one handheld camera on the bench during warm-up once the players have taken the ice (local - home bench only).
- Photographers will be guaranteed one location for the first period. Other period shooting locations will be coordinated during the game. Please respect sight lines of spectators at all times.
- Any live news shots utilizing the playing surface as a backdrop must conclude 30 minutes before television broadcast begins.
- As per NHL policy, non-rightsholders are not permitted to record highlights during games. Highlights will be available through Telus Operations Center, 800-332-1083.

HISTORY OF THE FRANCHISE

The Calgary Flames will mark their 34th NHL season and 35th year in Calgary with the 2014-15 campaign.

Since their arrival in 1980, the team has captivated hockey fans with their on-ice success, including a Stanley Cup victory in 1989, while establishing a solid off-ice reputation for community involvement through millions of dollars in contributions to charitable organizations throughout southern Alberta.

On May 21, 1980, Nelson Skalbania and a group of Calgary entrepreneurs consisting of Doc and B.J. Seaman, Harley Hotchkiss, Norm Green, Ralph Scurfield and Norman Kwong announced the acquisition of the Atlanta Flames franchise and declared their intention to relocate the team to Alberta.

In August 1981, Skalbania sold his interest to the Calgary contingent, and the remaining six local businessmen continued to hold exclusive ownership until June 15, 1990, when Norm Green left to become owner of the Minnesota North Stars (now Dallas Stars). On August 8, 1994, further revisions to the ownership structure saw the addition of six new investors and the departure of two of the team's original owners (Norman Kwong and Sonia Scurfield).

Subsequent changes have resulted in the current group of owners: Chairman N. Murray Edwards, owner and president of Edco Financial Holdings Ltd.; Alvin G. Libin, president and CEO of Balmon Investments Ltd.; Allan P. Markin, founder of the Pure North S'Energy Foundation; Jeffrey J. McCaig, chairman and CEO of Trimac Transportation and chairman and director of Bantrel Company; and Clayton H. Riddell, CEO of MGM Energy Corp. and chairman of the board of Perpetual Energy Inc. and Trilogy Energy Corp., as well as Byron J. Seaman, one of the ownership group's original members.

On October 9, 1980, in their inaugural game at the Stampede Corral, the Calgary Flames battled the Quebec Nordiques to a 5-5 tie. The team played a total of 146 league, playoff and exhibition games at the Corral, losing only 28 regular season and four playoff games in three seasons, before moving across the street to the Saddledome in October 1983. The Flames formally assumed management of the Saddledome on August 1, 1994, and after extensive renovations, the venue was reopened on October 25, 1995.

During the past 34 years, the Calgary Flames have become a premier NHL franchise. The team's first appearance in the Cup finals was in 1986 and their most recent in 2004, when they electrified the city with their inspirational playoff run. The pinnacle of the Flames' success was being crowned Stanley Cup champions for the 1988-89 season. In addition, they have captured two Presidents' Trophies (1987-88, 1988-89), three Clarence Campbell Conference titles (1985-86, 1988-89, 2003-04), two Smythe Division championships (1985-86, 1988-89), two Pacific Division titles (1993-94, 1994-95) and a Northwest Division title (2005-06), in addition to numerous NHL individual and team honours.

In 2003-04, the Flames launched an exciting new red jersey as their home sweater, and it would become the top-selling jersey launch in NHL history. At the start of the 2007-08 season, the Flames jersey was modified to include minor striping changes and shoulder patches featuring the Canada and Alberta flags. For 2010-11, a vintage jersey based on sweater worn by the 1989 Stanley Cup winning team was officially adopted as the team's third jersey.

A highlight of the 2010-11 season was the 2011 NHL Heritage Classic at McMahon Stadium on February 20, 2011. For their outdoor matchup against the Montreal Canadiens, the Flames wore uniforms inspired by the Calgary Tigers, the city's first major professional hockey team. A crowd of 41,022 spectators watched the Flames shut out the Habs 4-0.

On November 8, 2010, the Flames family celebrated the posthumous induction of Doc Seaman to the Hockey Hall of Fame in the Builder Category. Doc became the second member of the Flames ownership group to be elected to the Hall, joining the late Harley Hotchkiss, who received the same honour in 2006.

The Calgary Flames Limited Partnership became the majority ownership group and operating partner of the Calgary Stampers of the Canadian Football League on March 29, 2012. Coinciding with the acquisition of the majority ownership of the Stampers, the CFLP established a new company, the Calgary Sports and Entertainment Corporation (CSEC). CSEC became the overall parent company for the four franchises now owned by the corporation - the Calgary Flames, Calgary Hitmen, Calgary Roughnecks and Calgary Stampers, as well as the Management Agreement for the Scotiabank Saddledome.

When they brought the Flames to Calgary in 1980, the ownership group's mandate was to ensure that the team would have a positive impact on the quality of life in southern Alberta. A natural outcome of this mission was the creation of the charitable arm of the hockey club, the Flames Foundation for Life. Since its inception, the Foundation, along with its partners and donors, has raised millions of dollars for education, health and medical research, and amateur and grassroots sports.

CALGARY FLAMES OWNERS

N. Murray Edwards

N. Murray Edwards is owner and president of Edco Financial Holdings Ltd., a merchant banker since 1988. He is a leading investor in, and managing director and chairman of, numerous publicly traded companies including Canadian Natural Resources Limited, and Ensign Energy Services Inc. Today, these companies employ over 25,000 individuals. He is also a chairman, director and co-owner of the Calgary Flames Hockey Club.

Mr. Edwards graduated with a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Saskatchewan with Great Distinction and a Bachelor of Laws with Honours from the University of Toronto. After moving to Calgary in 1983, he became a lawyer and later a partner with Burnet, Duckworth & Palmer, a Calgary-based law firm.

At the community level, Mr. Edwards is a member of the Canadian Council of Chief Executives and on the board of directors of the C.D. Howe Institute.

Alvin G. Libin

Alvin G. Libin is a native Calgarian with business interests in real estate, oil and gas, and financial services. Mr. Libin is the president and chief executive officer of Balman Investments Ltd., a private management services and investment company. He has a strong commitment to the city of Calgary, and to the province of Alberta, and has provided leadership in various volunteer positions.

In 2003, Mr. Libin and his wife Mona, through the Alvin and Mona Libin Foundation, established the Libin Cardiovascular Institute of Alberta in partnership with the University of Calgary and Alberta Health Services. Its mission is to provide world-class cardiovascular healthcare, education and research for southern Alberta. He is past chairman of the Alberta Ingenuity Fund, a foundation created by the Government of Alberta to stimulate and support science and engineering research for the benefit of Albertans. He also serves as a director of several corporate and community boards. Mr. Libin is an Officer of the Order of Canada and holds an Honorary Doctorate of Laws from the University of Calgary. He was inducted into the Alberta Order of Excellence in 2004.

Clayton G. Riddell

Clayton H. Riddell was introduced as a new member of the Calgary Flames ownership group on August 29, 2003. His participation, combined with the ongoing commitment of the existing owners of the team and the community, provides strength, continuity and stability to the organization.

Mr. Riddell graduated from the University of Manitoba with a Bachelor of Science, Honours degree in Geology. In May 2004, he received an Honorary Doctorate of Science from the University of Manitoba. Mr. Riddell has been the chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Paramount Resources Ltd., a publicly traded oil and gas company since 1978. He is chairman of the board of Perpetual Energy Inc. and Trilogy Energy Corp.

Mr. Riddell is past president of the Canadian Society of Petroleum Geologists and past chair of the Canadian Association of Petroleum Producers. Mr. Riddell is associated with several other profit and non-profit organizations. He is chair for the Show Charity Classic, the PGA Champions Tour golf event which staged its inaugural event in 2013. He has been a resident of Calgary for many years.

Allan P. Markin

Allan P. Markin is a native Calgarian, and longtime philanthropist.

Presently Mr. Markin is a major supporter of the Alberta Project Promoting active Living & Healthy Eating in Schools (APPLE Schools) program. The project has expanded since inception, and is now running in 51 Northern Alberta schools, serving urban and rural schools, including First Nations schools. In 2012 Mr. Markin committed to enhancing the APPLE Schools program by integrating principles set out in the "FranklinCovey" Leader in Me program into existing APPLE Schools. The gift will also allow the School of Public Health to evaluate the impact of Leader in Me on children's physical activity, eating habits and leadership skills.

In recognition of his tremendous support of education, Mr. Markin has received honorary degrees from the Universities of Alberta, Calgary, Lethbridge and St. Francis Xavier. Mr. Markin is a Founder of St. Mary's University and was bestowed an honorary fellowship from St. Mary's University in 2004. In accepting The Fraser Institute's T. Patrick Boyle Founder Award in 2010, Mr. Markin spoke of individual value and personal responsibility.

The Mayor of the City of Calgary bestowed him with the Citizen of the Year award for 2004 and he received the Alberta Centennial Medal in 2005. In July 2008, Mr. Markin was appointed as an Officer of the Order of Canada by the Governor General. He received The Alberta Order of Excellence in October 2008. In the fall of 2009, he was inducted into the Calgary Business Hall of Fame. In March 2012, Mr. Markin was recognized as the Canadian Business Leader of the Year Award by the Alberta School of Business of the University of Alberta. In the summer of 2012 Mr. Markin was presented with the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal.

Another major benefactor of Mr. Markin's philanthropy has been health. He created the Pure North S'Energy Foundation, an innovative health program focused on primary prevention disease and research-based nutritional supplements. To date, Pure North had over 34,000 registered participants from a broad cross-section of backgrounds, with a special focus on seniors, the vulnerable, fire and flood victims, urban, and Aboriginal populations, including many communities in northern Canada. The main focus is supplying vital nutrients, and reducing heavy metal toxicity, to prevent chronic illness. The program helps people feel better and live longer.

Although diversified, Mr. Markin's main philanthropic objective is to enhance education tied to health and wellness.

Jeffrey J. McCaig

Jeffrey J. McCaig is chairman and chief executive officer of the Trimac Transportation group of companies. Trimac is the largest provider of bulk trucking services in North America and also provides complementary logistics services, including transload facility operations, distribution management, and freight brokerage.

Mr. McCaig has been with the Trimac Group of companies since August 1983. He became president of Trimac Corporation in May 1990 and chief executive officer in July 1994. Prior to joining Trimac in 1983, Mr. McCaig practiced law in Calgary, first as an associate of MacKimmie Matthews, then through Jeffrey J. McCaig Professional Corporation, focusing on corporate financing and securities. He continues to be a member of the Law Society of Alberta.

In addition to being a director and chairing the boards of the Trimac Group of companies, Mr. McCaig is a director of Potash Corporation of Saskatchewan. He is also a director and chairman of Bantrel Company, an engineering, procurement and construction company in the energy sector, and a director and co-owner of the Calgary Flames Hockey Club. Mr. McCaig also serves as chairman of the Flames Foundation for Life.

Mr. McCaig is a member of several Canadian and American industry associations relating to the trucking industry and is past chairman of the National Tank Truck Carriers Association in Washington, DC.

He obtained his undergraduate degree in Economics from Harvard; his law degree from Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto, Canada; and his Master of Science in Management degree from the Sloan Program, Stanford University.

Mr. McCaig is married with three grown children and resides in Calgary, as well as Houston, Texas.

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Ken M. King

Adding value for season ticket holders and game-day fans at every Flames home game is always top of mind for the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Calgary Sports and Entertainment Corporation; the company that encompasses the NHL Calgary Flames, the farm-team American Hockey League Adirondack Flames (Glens Falls, New York), the Western Hockey League Calgary Hitmen, the Canadian Football League Calgary Stampeders and the National Lacrosse League Calgary Roughnecks.

Like you, Ken King has an overwhelming obsession for sports. And his aspiration every season is to raise the bar another notch to reward devoted ticket holders with the best possible entertainment package in the NHL. He is grateful for long-term fan loyalty and passion surrounding the regular season. He's also proud to have watched fans enjoy the party atmosphere of playoff runs for the Stanley Cup.

King is quick to point out that managing professional sports is as much a team effort in the office as on the ice. "We have an awesome group of dedicated people ensuring everyone has a great experience".

King is a strong believer in contributing to the community and, above all, consideration for others. His current community involvement spans numerous organizations, including chairman, TELUS Community Board, the Calgary Sport Tourism Authority, the Calgary Exhibition & Stampede, Borden Ladner Gervais CIAU Athlete of the Year Awards Committee and the Rotary Club of Calgary. Previous support and commitment involved the past co-chair of REACH (a $300 million medical fundraising initiative), the Calgary Committee to End Homelessness, Calgary Prostate Cancer Centre, Calgary Philharmonic Society, No Ka Oi Ranch Foundation and past chairman of the Calgary Chamber of Commerce.

In 2005, King received an Alberta Centennial Medal for outstanding contributions to the province of Alberta. Other awards include the Queen's Diamond and Golden Jubilee Medals for community service and the commemorative medal for the 125th Anniversary of the Confederation of Canada. In 1991, he was honoured as B'Nai Brith Man of the Year. King received an honorary doctorate degree from the University of Calgary in 2012 and an honorary degree from Mount Royal University in 2014.

Born and raised in Hanley, Saskatchewan, King launched a 30-year career in the newspaper business that included senior executive positions in Canada's leading newspapers including president and publisher of the Calgary Sun and Calgary Herald. During his newspaper career in Calgary, King was acknowledged for his innovative marketing, establishment of healthy corporate relationships, spirited community leadership and appreciable growth for the newspapers.

King is an avid but mediocre golfer and like many other Albertans, shares a passion for horses. Most often he stays in the saddle, but not always. He and his wife, Marilyn, have two daughters and they are proud grandparents to Amanda's twin boys and Jocelin's son and daughter.

King serves as Alternate Governor of the NHL, Chairman and Governor of the CFL Calgary Stampeders and Governor of the WHL Calgary Hitmen.

PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

Brian P. Burke

Brian Burke joined the Calgary Flames Hockey Club on September 5, 2013 in the newly created role, President of Hockey Operations. He is responsible for overseeing all hockey operations for the Flames organization. Burke brings over 21 years of National Hockey League experience in various roles to the franchise. In 1,145 games as a general manager in Hartford (84 games: 1992-93), Vancouver (492 games: 1998-99 to 2003-04), Anaheim (263 games: 2005-06 to 2008-09) and Toronto (306 games: 2008-09 to 2012-13), Burke has accumulated a record of 521-449-74-101. Additionally, he worked in the NHL front office for five years as executive vice-president and director of hockey operations, under Commissioner Gary Bettman.

Prior to assuming his current position in Calgary, Burke was president and general manager of the Toronto Maple Leafs, a title he assumed on November 29, 2008 becoming the 13th general manager in Maple Leafs history. He parted ways with the Leafs on January 9, 2013 and became a pro scout and consultant with the Anaheim Ducks.

As executive vice-president and general manager of the Anaheim Ducks from 2005 to 2008, Burke guided the Ducks to their first Stanley Cup in 2007, first Pacific Division title (2007), and first two 100+ point seasons (2006-07 and 2007-08). He was ranked No. 1 by The Hockey News in the magazine's Annual GM Rankings in March of 2008, and was a finalist for The Hockey News Executive of the Year in 2006. Burke was also named the Sporting News Executive of the Year in 2001, and was a runner-up for the same award following the 2005-06 season.

Since the 2000-01 season, Burke's teams have qualified for the Stanley Cup playoffs seven times, playing in 13 total post-season series. In addition, those seven teams recorded at least 90+ points, including four 100-point seasons.

In March 2012, Burke was appointed to the Hockey Hall of Fame's Selection Committee. He is also an original member of the US Men's National Team Advisory Group that was formed in 2007 to assist USA Hockey with the selection of players and staff of Men's National Teams, including the Olympics. He served as the general manager of the 2010 US Olympic Hockey Team, which won a silver medal at the 2010 Winter Olympic Games in Vancouver, and was general manager of the US World Championship teams in 1993, 2009 and 2010. On August 7, 2008, Burke was recognized for his outstanding service to hockey in the United States when he was named the recipient of the 2008 Lester Patrick Award.

Away from the rink, Burke is well-known for his work within the community. He is a vocal activist against homophobia in sports, a strong supporter of first response personnel and military service members, an environmentalist and a humanitarian. His most recent appointment was to the Board of Directors for Rugby Canada. A sport he fondly has referred to as his "second favourite sport."

In honour of his homosexual son Brendan who passed away, Burke has been a spokesperson for the 'You Can Play' project since it was co-founded by his son Patrick in 2011. At the time of his death, Brendan was a hockey operations assistant at Miami University. 'You Can Play' is dedicated to ensuring equality, respect and safety for all athletes, without regard to sexual orientation. Burke has also marched in numerous Toronto Pride Parades in Brendan's memory and has candidly spoken out against homophobia and bullying. Alongside several city councillors and representatives of the group PFLAG Canada, he helped raise the Pride flag outside Toronto's City Hall in May 2011. Burke is also a member of Egale, Canada's largest lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) human rights organization.

In April 2011, Burke was named Youth Role Model of the Year by Jer's Vision given to a community leader dedicated to fighting homophobia and bullying. Jer's Vision is Canada's youth diversity initiative, which works to address bullying, homophobia, transphobia and discrimination of all kinds in schools and youth communities. Burke also received the Straight Ally Legacy Award from the Federation of Gay Games (FGG) in October 2011, PFLAG Toronto's Ally Award in January 2012, and was honoured by Courage Campaign Institute with a Spirit of Courage Award in September 2012 for his continuing work and dedication in the LGBT community. In 2010, USA Hockey created the 'Brendan Burke Internship,' which is an annual internship for a recent college graduate interested in pursuing hockey operations as a career.

Burke is a devoted supporter of Police Services and was given honorary Police Chief status in Toronto in April 2012. In November 2011, he purchased and donated a horse named Moose to Toronto's Mounted Police Unit in memory of his late son Brendan, who shared the same nickname.

In May 2011, Burke and the Honourable John P. Manley, President and CEO, of the Canadian Council of Chief Executives, were presented with the Easter Seals Toronto's Tribute Award for lending support to kids with physical disabilities and for excellence in business and community service.

Burke is also heavily involved with the military, visiting bases within Canada, the United States and Afghanistan. He has been associated with the Wounded Warrior Project since 2003, which honours and empowers wounded warriors. The program raises awareness and enlists the public's aid for the needs of injured service members, helps injured servicemen and women aid and assist each other, and provides unique, direct programs and services to meet their needs. At the 2010 Olympics, Burke and a volunteer group called Operation Homefront paired each of the 23 hockey players on Team USA with service members wounded in Iraq or Afghanistan. He felt the players would have extra pride and motivation to not only be representing their country, but an American war hero wounded in battle.

Burke is an avid supporter of many philanthropic organizations, devoting time and making numerous donations to each. Some of these organizations include: Ducks Unlimited Canada (DUC), a registered charity that partners with government, industry, non-profit organizations and landowners to conserve wetlands that are critical to waterfowl, wildlife and the environment; the Canadian Safe School Network (CSSN), a national, not-for-profit, registered charitable organization with a mandate to reduce youth violence and make our schools and communities safer; Big Brothers Big Sisters of Canada, who commit to Canada's young people to be leaders in providing them with the highest quality, volunteer-based mentoring programs; Special Olympics which provides year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities; and Kids, Cops & Computers Merry-Go-Round Children's Foundation which enables financially disadvantaged students to achieve excellence in their academic and personal pursuits by providing them with brand-new computers and police mentorship.

Burke took part in the 2012 Sleep Out for Homeless Kids, helping raise awareness and funds for Covenant House. He also attended the official launch of the 2012 Shoppers Drug Mart Tree of Life Campaign in support of Toronto East General Hospital, was an honoured guest at the 2012 CAMH Healthy Minds dinner to raise awareness for mental health, and supported the Rick Hansen 25th Anniversary Relay in 2011 to raise awareness and commemorate Hansen's Man in Motion World Tour commencing its historic cross-Canada journey.

Born in Providence, Rhode Island but raised in Edina, Minnesota, Burke is a graduate of Providence College. While attending Providence, he played for the Friars Division-I hockey team. As a professional he played in the AHL, capturing the Calder Cup with the Maine Mariners in 1978. After one year in the AHL, Burke attended Harvard Law School, graduating in 1981.

Brad Treliving

GENERAL MANAGER

Brad Treliving joined the Calgary Flames organization on April 28, 2014 and is serving as the franchise's seventh General Manager. In his position with Calgary, Treliving reports directly to President of Hockey Operations Brian Burke. He is responsible for all team personnel decisions, both players and staff; manages the amateur and pro scouting staffs; as well as other administrative duties required of the general manager. He is also responsible for all player personnel assignments with Flames' minor league affiliates.

Treliving served as the vice-president of hockey operations and assistant general manager with the Phoenix Coyotes for seven seasons prior to coming to Calgary. With Phoenix, Treliving worked closely with General Manager Don Maloney on the day-to-day administration of the Coyotes' hockey operations. Treliving also served as general manager of the club's American Hockey League affiliate, the Portland Pirates.

Prior to his role with the Coyotes, Treliving served as the president of the Central Hockey League (CHL) for seven years. During his tenure, he guided the CHL to remarkable growth and development including numerous successful expansion franchises. In 1996 Treliving co-founded the Western Professional Hockey League (WPHL) and served as the league's vice-president and director of hockey operations for five seasons. The native of Penticton, BC played an integral role in the merger of the WPHL and the CHL in May 2001 upon which he began his tenure as president of the league.

Prior to his front office career, Treliving played five seasons of professional hockey from 1990-91 to 1994-95 in the IHL, the AHL and the ECHL. A defenceman, Treliving registered 17 goals and 85 assists for 102 points and 811 penalty minutes in 243 games in the ECHL. As a junior, the Penticton, BC native, played in both the BCJHL and two years in the WHL.

Treliving and his wife Julie have two daughters, Ryann and Reese, and now resides in Calgary.

Craig Conroy

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Craig Conroy is in his first season as the assistant general manager after three seasons as the special assistant to general manager. Conroy started his illustrious career at Clarkson University in his hometown of Potsdam, NY, before being drafted by the Montreal Canadiens in the 6th round (123rd overall) of the 1990 NHL Entry Draft. He finished his four years at Clarkson followed by three years split between Montreal and Fredericton.

At the start of the 1996 season, Conroy was traded to the St. Louis Blues where he spent the next five years of his career before being traded to the Calgary Flames in March of 2001. During the 2001-02 season, he scored a career high 75 points, helping Jarome Iginla reach the 50-goal plateau for the first time in his career. Conroy continued to produce offensively and was a major contributor in the team's 2004 Stanley Cup Playoffs run.

After signing with Los Angeles during the summer of 2004, Conroy returned to the Flames on January 30, 2007. During his career, he amassed a total of 1,009 games with 507 of those games being played in a Flames uniform. On October 28, 2010, he celebrated his 1000th career game in front of the hometown fans at the Scotiabank Saddledome before retiring from the NHL in February of 2011 after 17 seasons spent with Montreal, St. Louis, Los Angeles and Calgary. During his career he recorded 542 points including 182 goals while notching another 30 points in 81 playoff games.

Conroy and his wife Jessie have three daughters, Taylor, Sophia and Sydney.

Michael Holditch

SENIOR VICE-PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS AND ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

The 2014-15 season marks Michael Holditch's 21st season with the Calgary Flames. This is his fifth year in the role of senior vice-president and assistant general manager. Holditch works closely with General Manager Brad Treliving on the direction of all hockey operations including CBA interpretation, team development, administration and tracking of the player budget, player negotiations, arbitration, scheduling and contract review and documentation.

Holditch joined the Flames organization in 1994. Prior to moving to the hockey operations group, Holditch was the vice-president of finance and chief financial officer for the organization. Michael was also an alternate governor of the Western Hockey League's Calgary Hitmen for five years through the 2002-03 season and sat on the Western Hockey League's Executive Committee for two years. Holditch is a past treasurer of the Flames Foundation for Life, the charity that is responsible for many of the organization's charitable initiatives.

Holditch is a native Calgarian who attended the University of Calgary, graduating with a Bachelor of Commerce degree in 1988. Upon completion of his undergraduate degree he qualified for and practiced as a chartered accountant in Calgary. Holditch and his wife Cara have two daughters, Brynn and Cade.

Brad Pascall

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Brad Pascall joined the Calgary Flames organization on June 6, 2014 after serving as the vice-president of hockey operations of men's national teams with Hockey Canada since 2010. Pascall brings an abundance of international hockey experience and gold medal successes as he has worked in various capacities with Hockey Canada for the past 18 years. He served as Hockey Canada's senior director of men's national teams from 2006 to 2010 and was the senior director of communications from 1998 to 2009.

Among his achievements, Pascall played an instrumental role, as part of the management group, for Canada's gold medal Men's Olympic Team at the 2014 Olympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia. Four years earlier, he collected gold with the Men's Olympic Team at the 2010 Olympic Winter Games in Vancouver. He has also been a member of team operations and assistant general manager for Canada at the IIHF World Championship in 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 and directed and led Canada's National Junior Team to gold medals at the 2007, 2008 and 2009 IIHF World Junior Championships and a silver medal in 2010. Pascall's gold medal collection also includes the Canada/Russia Super Series in the summer of 2007 and with Canada's National Men's Summer Under-18 Team at the 2006, 2012 and 2013 Ivan Hlinka events.

Prior to advancing to the lead position with hockey operations, Pascall led the media relations for Canada's national teams (men's and women's) at the 2002 and 2006 Olympic Winter Games, the 2004 World Cup of Hockey, eight IIHF World Championships, four IIHF World Junior Championships and two IIHF World Women's Championships and was coordinator of media relations for Canada at the 1996 World Cup of Hockey.

Drafted by the Buffalo Sabres in the fifth round (103rd overall) of the 1990 NHL Entry Draft, Pascall played two seasons in the AHL with Rochester and two seasons in the ECHL with South Carolina and Birmingham after four seasons (1988-92) at the University of North Dakota. He and his wife, Cassie and daughter Brooke make Calgary their home year-round.

Mike Burke

DIRECTOR, HOCKEY ADMINISTRATION

The 2014-15 NHL season represents Mike Burke's 32nd year with the Calgary Flames. Since the start of the 1994-95 campaign, when Burke moved to the hockey department and was promoted to his current position, he has been responsible for the administration of the hockey club. He works closely with General Manager Brad Treliving in managing many facets of the Flames hockey operations. Burke's vast experience in hockey-related issues has made him a valuable part of the hockey staff. His main responsibilities include salary cap management, scheduling, contract research, analysis and negotiation, player assignments, preparation of salary arbitrations, liaison between the NHL and the Flames regarding all aspects of hockey administration, monitoring collective bargaining issues and helping coordinate the day-to-day operations of the Club.

Prior to his current appointment, Burke was responsible for the Club's media relations and communications. A graduate of the Public Relations program at Mount Royal College, Burke began his sports administration career with the Saskatoon Blades (WHL) in 1980 before serving two seasons as general manager of a minor-pro team in the Montreal Expos' organization. He has often worked with the NHL in both NHL All-Star Games and NHL Stanley Cup Final events. In 1996, Burke was added as a member of Team Canada's hockey operation staff for the World Cup of Hockey tournament.

A native of Plato, Saskatchewan, Burke has two boys, Keaton and Reid.

Chris Snow

DIRECTOR, VIDEO AND STATISTICAL ANALYSIS

Chris Snow is in his fourth season with the Flames as the director of video and statistical analysis. In this role he is charged with all data collection, database development, and data-based analysis. Snow supports decision making across several aspects of the hockey operation, including Flames roster decisions, professional and amateur scouting, Flames game preparation, and player contract negotiations. Prior to joining the Flames, Snow spent four seasons as director of hockey operations with the Minnesota Wild. His responsibilities included analyzing team rosters and cap commitments for the purpose of strategic roster planning, preparing for contract negotiations and arbitration, assisting in day-to-day hockey administration and CBA interpretation, developing and managing hockey databases, professional scouting and coordinating the team's sports psychology program.

Prior to entering the hockey business, Snow was a staff writer for the Boston Globe, where he worked as the Boston Red Sox beat writer. A graduate of Syracuse University, he has also worked for the Minneapolis Star Tribune as the Minnesota Wild beat writer. A native of Melrose, Massachusetts, Snow resides in Calgary with his wife, Kelsie, and son, Cohen.

Bob Hartley

HEAD COACH

Bob Hartley, a native of Hawkesbury, Ontario, is in his third season as the head coach of the Calgary Flames. He has brought a wealth of experience to the Flames having coached the Colorado Avalanche for five seasons, during which they won the 2001 Stanley Cup, and was also the coach of the Atlanta Thrashers for parts of five seasons. In addition to his most recent Swiss League title with the ZSC Lions in Zurich, Hartley led the Hershey Bears to the 1997 Calder Cup and also has Junior A and Major Junior championship rings among his accomplishments.

Hartley began his coaching career with the Junior A team in his hometown of Hawkesbury. After guiding the club to two championships, he was named head coach of the Laval Titan of the QMJHL. Over two seasons with the Titan he compiled an 81-52-7 record, a league championship and an appearance in the 1993 Memorial Cup. Hartley's junior success was rewarded when the Quebec Nordiques hired him as an assistant coach of their American Hockey League affiliate, the Cornwall Aces. It only took a single season before he took the reins as head coach in 1994, guiding the Aces to two division titles during the team's three-year history.

When the Nordiques relocated to Colorado, Hartley became the head coach of their AHL affiliate, the Hershey Bears. Once again, his tenure with the Bears was a success as he guided the team to two consecutive playoff appearances and a Calder Cup title in 1997. A season later, Hartley was hired as the Colorado Avalanche bench boss. During his five seasons, the Avalanche won four division titles and made four appearances in the conference finals. Hartley's third season was ultimately his most successful one as Colorado steam-rolled through the league with a 52-16-10-4 record, a division title along with the President's Trophy and the Stanley Cup. Hartley's tenure with the Avalanche franchise ended in December of 2002 with a 193-109-48 regular season record and a 49-31 playoff record. His 193 wins are a franchise record. He became the only coach in team history to record 40 or more wins during his first four seasons as head coach.

One month later, Hartley was appointed head coach of the Atlanta Thrashers. He guided the young Thrashers through four seasons of steady improvements but it was the 2006-07 campaign in which they won their first Southeast Division title, setting new franchise records for wins and points with a 43-28-11 record, good enough for 97 points and third seed in the Eastern Conference. The team also clinched its first playoff berth in franchise history.

Hartley and his wife, Micheline, have a daughter, Kristine and a son, Steve.

Jacques Cloutier

ASSOCIATE COACH

Jacques Cloutier, a native of Rouyn-Noranda, Quebec, is in his third season as an associate coach with the Flames. Upon retirement from his playing career, Cloutier was hired as an assistant coach for the Nordiques' AHL affiliate, the Cornwall Aces. While coaching the Aces, Cloutier also served as a part-time goaltending coach for the Nordiques. In 1995-96 the Nordiques moved west to become the Colorado Avalanche and Cloutier moved with the team, becoming the full assistant coach. Midway through the 1995-96 season, Cloutier was promoted to assistant coach with the Avalanche. During his time as a coach in Colorado, Cloutier helped the Avalanche win the Stanley Cup in 1996 and again on Head Coach Bob Hartley's staff in 2001. He spent a total of 13 seasons as an assistant coach with the Avalanche concluding in 2009. Jacques most recently won the Swiss League title with the ZSC Lions in Zurich as an assistant coach to Bob Hartley.

Cloutier had an impressive career starting in the QMJHL. In 1977-78, just his second year of major junior hockey, Cloutier played in 71 games, going 46-17-7 and helped lead the Drapeaux to the Memorial Cup. The next season he played 72 games going 58-8-6 and captured the Jacques Plante Memorial Trophy for best goaltender in the QMJHL and again leading the Drapeaux to the Memorial Cup.

The following season, Cloutier was selected in the 3rd round of the 1979 NHL Entry Draft by the Buffalo Sabres with the 55th pick overall. He started his professional career with the Rochester Americans and won the Calder Cup with them in 1983. Jacques made his NHL debut with the Buffalo Sabres during the 1981-82 season and played with the Sabres until the end of the 1988-89 season. He spent the 1989-90 season and part of the 1990-91 season with the Chicago Blackhawks before finishing his goaltending career after four years with the Quebec Nordiques retiring in 1994.

Jacques and his wife Lynn have two daughters, Julie (husband Matt) and Jessica.

ASSISTANT COACH

Martin Gelinas is in his third season as an assistant coach with the Calgary Flames. Prior to joining the Flames, Gelinas served as the director of player development for the Nashville Predators, joining the staff following his retirement as a player in 2009.

In his 19-year NHL career, Gelinas played in 1,273 games (62nd all-time at the start of this season) and scored 660 points. He played the 2002-03 and 2003-04 seasons with the Flames, and tied an NHL record by scoring three playoff series-clinching goals in the same year—including two in overtime—during the Flames' 2004 Stanley Cup run (and joining Ken Linseman in the record book in the process). "The Eliminator," as Gelinas was known, is one of just a handful of players to have reached the Stanley Cup Finals with four different teams; the left-winger won a Stanley Cup in 1990 as a member of the Edmonton Oilers and also played in the NHL Finals in 1994 and 2002. He also played two professional seasons in Switzerland (2004-05 and 2008-09).

A native of Shawinigan, Quebec, Gelinas made a splash in 1987-88 with the Hull Olympiques of the QMJHL with a 63-goal, 131-point campaign. He was named CHL Rookie of the Year in the process and selected seventh overall by the Los Angeles Kings in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft. But Gelinas never suited up for the Kings. Two months after the draft, on August 9, 1988, he was included in the celebrated "Gretzky Trade" that sent Gelinas, Kings centre Jimmy Carson, the team's first round picks in the 1989, 1991 and 1993 entry drafts, and a reported $15 million cash to Edmonton in exchange for Wayne Gretzky, Mike Krushelnyski and Marty McSorley.

Gelinas played six games for the Oilers in 1988 before being rejoining the Olympiques. In his first full NHL season in 1989-90, Gelinas had 25 points in 46 games, and won the Stanley Cup as Edmonton defeated the Boston Bruins in five games. Along with Joe Murphy and Adam Graves, he helped make up the popular Oilers' forward line known as "The Kid Line." Gelinas was the last player from the 1980s Oilers' dynasty active in the NHL.

He was traded to the Quebec Nordiques during the 1993 NHL Entry Draft and played 31 games for Quebec before being claimed on waivers by the Vancouver Canucks. Gelinas was a major factor in Vancouver's 1994 post-season run losing in seven games in the Stanley Cup Finals to the New York Rangers. He and goaltender Kirk McLean were traded to the Carolina Hurricanes on January 3, 1998, where he spent five seasons before joining the Calgary Flames. He went on to play a year in Switzerland during the 2004-05 season before signing with the Florida Panthers for the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons. He concluded his NHL career in 2007-08 as a member of the Nashville Predators, where his season was cut short by a knee injury. He was Nashville's Masterton Trophy nominee that year.

Gelinas and his family have lived in Calgary since 2002. He and his wife, Jane, have three children—a son, Matthew, and daughters Cameron and Morgan. Matthew was selected by Swift Current in the 2010 Western Hockey League Bantam Draft.

GOALTENDING COACH

Jordan Sigalet joins the Flames after spending the past three seasons as the goaltending coach with Calgary's AHL affiliate in Abbotsford. Prior to that, Sigalet was the goaltending coach with the Everett Silvertips (WHL) for two seasons.

Jordan was originally drafted from Victoria (BCHL) by the Boston Bruins in the 2001 NHL Entry Draft and played one game and backed up 10 games for the Bruins during the 2005-06 season. He spent four years at Bowling Green University (CCHA) where he was a CCHA All-Star (2003 and 2004), won the Terry Flanagan Award for perseverance, team captain his senior year and was a Top 10 Hobey Baker Finalist in addition to being nominated for an ESPY in the "Comeback Player of the Year" category. He spent three seasons with the Providence Bruins, Boston's AHL affiliate and was the recipient of the Fred Hunt Memorial Trophy before concluding his playing career in Vienna, Austria in 2009.

Jordan and his wife Lindsay have two sons, Jaxon and Maddox and reside in Calgary.

Jamie Pringle

SENIOR VIDEO ANALYST

Jamie Pringle, a native of Picton, Ontario is in his fourth season with the Flames coaching staff after three seasons as the video coach with the Florida Panthers. Prior to that, Pringle spent the 2006-07 and 2007-08 season as the video coach for Hockey Canada. He was part of the staff for all international events including winning gold at the 2007 IIHF World Championship and winning gold at the 2007 and 2008 IIHF World Junior Championships. Pringle worked with Brent Sutter during the 2008 World Junior team Super Series against Russia. Pringle spent the 2004-05 and 2005-06 seasons as the assistant coach with the Kingston Frontenacs (OHL) after four seasons as the assistant coach with the Belleville Bulls (1999-2004) where he helped earn the OHL title in 1999.

Jamie and his wife Karen have two children, Brendan and Brooke.

Ryan van Asten

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Ryan van Asten is in his first season as the Flames strength and conditioning coach and is responsible for coordinating the overall strength and conditioning program for all of the players in the Flames organization.

Prior to joining the Flames, van Asten was spent the last three seasons with the Los Angeles Kings as their strength and conditioning coach winning two Stanley Cups in 2012 and 2014. He was also the head strength and conditioning coach and coordinator for Hockey Canada and the Canadian Sport Centre Calgary where he was part of the 2010 Olympic gold medal championship women's hockey team in Vancouver. Along with the Olympic gold medal, van Asten was fortunate to be a part of three World Championship teams and multiple (10) World Cup medal winners in hockey and luge.

Van Asten is a graduate of the University of Calgary where he earned a Master of Science degree in Neuromuscular Physiology. He also holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Life Sciences and a Bachelor of Physical and Health Education degree from Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario. He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (NSCA) and a Certified Exercise Physiologist (CSEP).

SKILLS COACH

Domenic Pittis is going in to his second season as the Calgary Flames skills coach and has been responsible for working with players on ice during the season and in their off-season training. Pittis was originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Penguins in the second round (52nd overall) in the 1993 NHL Entry Draft. He played games with Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Edmonton and Nashville before a successful nine-year career in Switzerland with Kloten and Zurich winning the Champions League in 2009 and NLA titles in 2008 and 2012, the last one coming under the guidance of current Flames Head Coach Bob Hartley. He was the winner of the 1998-99 John B. Sollenberger Trophy as the top scorer in the AHL when he netted 38 goals and added 66 assists for a league leading 104 points during the regular season with the Rochester Americans. He has represented Team Canada at seven Spengler Cups from 2004 to 2012.

Domenic and his wife Kim have three girls, Stella, Sofia and Sera.

Morris Boyer

ATHLETIC THERAPIST

Morris Boyer is entering his 18th season as the athletic therapist with the Flames after joining the organization during the 1997-98 season. In July of 2001, he was appointed head athletic trainer for the Flames with his primary responsibilities including injury prevention, care and rehabilitation. In April of 2013, he was named athletic therapist for the Canadian National Men's Hockey Team for the third time having captured a gold medal at the IIHF Men's World Championships in 2003. Boyer was selected to be the Head Athletic Therapist for the 2012 NHL All-Star Game in Ottawa, Ontario.

Boyer is a graduate of the University of Alberta with a Bachelor of Physical Education. In 1991 he achieved his Certified Athletic Therapist Diploma from the Canadian Athletic Therapists Association. Upon graduation, Boyer worked with the Canadian Men's Volleyball team, the Canadian Professional Rodeo Sport Medicine Team, Edmonton Brick Men Soccer Club, Red Deer College and the Sports Medicine Clinic in Oshawa, Ontario. In addition, he was a member of the athletic therapy staff for the 1993 World University Games and 1995 PAN-AM Games in Argentina.

Boyer's experience is not limited to his post-graduation years. He has also worked as a student therapist at the Glen Sather Sports Medicine Clinic in Edmonton and was a therapist for both the University of Alberta Golden Bears Hockey Team and the Sherwood Park Crusaders Jr. 'A' Hockey Team.

DOUG GILMOUR - Inducted 2011 - Player, 1988-92

On June 28, 2011, it was announced that Douglas Robert Gilmour would be honoured with induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame. He was born June 25, 1963 in Kingston, Ontario, and had a 20-year NHL career.

In 1980-81, his first year with the Cornwall Royals (OHL), Gilmour was 5'9" and 150 pounds. After an early injury curtailed his effectiveness in Cornwall's 1981 Memorial Cup championship, he returned to score 46 goals and 119 points in 1981-82.

Cornwall repeated as Memorial Cup champions and Gilmour, who had been passed over in his first year of draft eligibility, was selected by the St. Louis Blues in the seventh round, 134th overall. He was returned to junior hockey by the Blues for the 1982-83 season and set the OHL on fire with 70 goals and 177 points, capturing the Eddie Powers Trophy as the OHL's leading scorer. He set a record with a 55 consecutive games scoring streak and was named the league's most valuable player.

St. Louis signed him and he joined the team two weeks before the 1983-84 season. The Blues' captain at the time, Brian Sutter, nicknamed Gilmour 'Killer' for his intensity.

After three full seasons hovering around 50 points, Gilmour began to play a more open game and during the 1986 playoffs, he had 21 points in 19 games when the Blues came within a game of advancing to the Stanley Cup Final. The next season, 1986-87, he finished the regular schedule with a career-high 42 goals and 105 points and was selected to represent Team Canada at the 1987 Canada Cup. He scored two important goals in the series against the Soviet Union and was instrumental in Canada's victory at the tournament.

After another solid season in St. Louis, Gilmour was traded to the Calgary Flames at the beginning of the 1988-89 campaign. In Calgary, Gilmour continued his strong play in the playoffs, adding 22 points in 22 games as the Flames won the Stanley Cup in 1989. Gilmour scored the series-winning goal in Game Six of the Final against Montreal. Halfway through the 1991-92 season he was traded to the Toronto Maple Leafs in a blockbuster deal involving 10 players; the largest trade in league history.

Gilmour set a Leafs franchise record with 127 points in his first full season with Toronto in 1992-93. He became only the second Leaf after Darryl Sittler to register over a hundred points in a season and also led the team to within a game of the Stanley Cup Final, placing second in playoff scoring and leading the league with 25 assists. Gilmour placed second to Mario Lemieux in the race for the Hart Trophy as the league's most valuable player but won the Selke Trophy as the top defensive forward, a remarkable achievement for a player with such offensive numbers.

Gilmour had 111 points the next season, earning his second consecutive spot in the All-Star Game. He once again led the Leafs to the semi-finals in the playoffs. Gilmour was named the team captain in 1994-95 before the lockout-shortened season and remained a popular player in Toronto even as the team began to struggle. When the Leafs went into rebuilding mode midway through the 1996-97 season, Gilmour was sent to the New Jersey Devils. He spent one full season with the defence-oriented Devils and was signed as a free agent by the Chicago Blackhawks in the summer of 1998.

In the spring of 2000, he was traded to the Buffalo Sabres, then signed on as a free agent with the Montreal Canadiens in October 2001 and went on to play parts of two seasons with the Habs before he was dealt back to Toronto at the trade deadline in 2003.

He officially announced his retirement on September 8, 2003. Gilmour registered 1,414 points on the strength of 450 goals and 964 assists in 1,474 regular season games. He added 188 points (60 goals and 128 assists) in 182 playoff games.

On January 31, 2009, Gilmour became the 17th player to be honoured by the Toronto Maple Leafs when his number 93 was raised to the rafters of the Air Canada Centre.

JOE NIEUWENDYK - Inducted 2011 - Player, 1986-1995

On June 28, 2011, it was announced that Joe Nieuwendyk would be honoured with induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame. Born in Oshawa, Ontario on September 10, 1966, and then raised in neighbouring Whitby, Joe Nieuwendyk played college hockey at Cornell University in New York State. Nieuwendyk spent three years on the Ivy League school's team and was twice named to the ECAC's First All-Star Team (1986 and 1987). He was also selected as an All-American in both years.

In 1985, after Nieuwendyk's freshman year at Cornell, the Calgary Flames were sufficiently impressed to draft him in the second round, 27th overall. In his first full season as a Flame (1987-88), the young centre scored 51 goals and 92 points, becoming only the second NHL player after Mike Bossy to score 50 goals in his rookie season. Nieuwendyk's totals also included an eye-popping 31 power-play goals and 8 game-winners, and he was rewarded with the Calder Trophy as the league's top rookie.

In Nieuwendyk's second season with the Flames he won the Stanley Cup, again scoring 51 goals. In 1991, he was named captain of the Flames. When knee problems prevented Nieuwendyk from playing early in the 1995-96 season, the Flames found few takers on the trade market. Finally, in December 1995, the Flames traded Nieuwendyk to the Dallas Stars for Jarome Iginla and Corey Miller.

Nieuwendyk missed most of the 1998 playoff due to a knee injury. However, in 1999, his health and luck returned as Nieuwendyk scored 6 game-winning goals in the playoffs to lead the Stars to victory over the Buffalo Sabres in the Stanley Cup Finals. That spring, he was recipient of the Conn Smythe Trophy as the playoff MVP.

Nieuwendyk went on to play parts of two more seasons with the Stars before he was traded to the New Jersey Devils. Following his arrival in New Jersey, Nieuwendyk reached numerous milestones, including the 500 goal-plateau, 500 assists and 1,000 points.

In 2003, Nieuwendyk earned his third career Stanley Cup ring despite missing the Devils' Final due to injury. Later that summer he signed as a free agent with the Toronto Maple Leafs where he suited up for one season before opting to move on to the Florida Panthers in the summer of 2005.

Nieuwendyk's first season with the Florida Panthers saw the centre tally 56 points in 65 games, however, the club failed to qualify for the playoffs that spring. Due to chronic back problems, Nieuwendyk retired three months into his second season with the Panthers.

Joe Nieuwendyk left the NHL as one of the most respected players of his time, collecting 564 goals and 562 assists for 1,126 points through 1,257 regular season games. In playoff action, he added 66 goals and 50 assists for 116 points in 158 games.

Besides three Stanley Cup championships, Nieuwendyk won the Calder Trophy in 1988, the King Clancy Trophy (for dedication to his community) in 1995 and the Conn Smythe Trophy in 1999.

On the international stage, Nieuwendyk represented Canada at the 1986 World Junior Championships, at the 1990 World Championships, and is a two-time member of Canada's Winter Olympic team (1998 and 2002).

DARYL K. "DOC" SEAMAN - Inducted 2010 - Owner, 1980-09

On June 22, 2010, it was announced that Daryl K. "Doc" Seaman, a founding owner of the Calgary Flames, would be inducted into the Builder Category in the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Doc Seaman was born in Rouleau, Saskatchewan. He became one of Alberta's most successful oilmen and industrialists through his company, Bow Valley Industries, along with many other ventures. He and his brothers, B.J. and Don Seaman, were among the first wave of adventurous oilmen who pioneered the industry after the Second World War. Doc Seaman's war record was itself remarkable; he flew 82 successful combat missions out of North Africa as a sub-hunting pilot, earning a Government of France citation for bravery.

An original Calgary Flames owner, Doc Seaman followed the team passionately. Besides bringing the Flames to Calgary, he was a key player in building the Saddledome and bringing the 1988 Olympic Winter Games to Calgary.

A true hockey fan, Doc Seaman joined a small group of visionaries to save Canadian hockey from mediocrity at a time when the European game was becoming dominant. Canada's five straight junior hockey gold medal wins have their roots in Project 75, now called the Seaman Hotchkiss Hockey Foundation. He was a strong supporter of Hockey Canada's grassroots development program.

Among his numerous awards and achievements, Doc Seaman was the founding governor of the Hockey Canada Foundation in 1979; named an Officer, Order of Canada in 1993; elected to the Alberta Sports Hall of Fame in 2007; and received the Alberta Order of Excellence in 2008.

Doc Seaman becomes the second member of the Flames ownership group to be elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame. Harley N. Hotchkiss received the honour as a member of the Class of 2006. Daryl K. "Doc" Seaman passed away on Sunday, January 11, 2009, at the age of 86.

AL MacINNIS - Inducted 2007 - Player, 1981-94

On November 12, 2007, Al MacInnis became the 10th member in the history of the Calgary Flames organization to be honoured with induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Born Allan MacInnis on July 11, 1963, in Port Hood, Nova Scotia, he played junior hockey for the Kitchener Rangers beginning in 1980-81. During the summer of 1981, MacInnis was drafted in the first round, 15th overall, by the Flames. Although he played a handful of games for the Flames in both 1981-82 and 1982-83, MacInnis continued his junior career, which included a Memorial Cup championship in 1982.

After spending the early part of the 1983-84 season with the CHL's Colorado Flames, MacInnis became a full-time member of the Calgary Flames blue line later that season, playing 51 games and scoring 11 goals and 34 assists for 45 points.

MacInnis spent 13 seasons with Calgary before moving to St. Louis, but left Alberta having evolved into one of the most effective defencemen in the NHL. While with the Flames, he played in eight All-Star Games, but more importantly, was a key component of a Stanley Cup championship for Calgary in 1989, the first in franchise history. For his contributions in the playoffs that spring, including 7 goals and 24 assists in 22 games, MacInnis was awarded the Conn Smythe Trophy. In 803 games played, MacInnis recorded 822 points as a member of the Flames. He also holds the career franchise record for assists (609).

HARLEY N. HOTCHKISS - Inducted 2006 - Owner, 1980-11

On June 28, 2006, Flames co-owner Harley Hotchkiss received the prestigious honour of election to the Hockey Hall of Fame. Hotchkiss; the youngest of six children was raised on a farm near Tillsonburg, Ontario. He spent his winters on the pond playing hockey, emulating his beloved Toronto Maple Leafs. His idol was Syl Apps. In addition to dreaming of playing in the NHL, the young Hotchkiss also planned a second career in the business world, just in case. The game of hockey was the beneficiary of Harley's practical side as he has used his business success to ensure the growth and development of hockey in Canada.

An original member of the Flames ownership group, Harley Hotchkiss was among the group of local businessmen who introduced the National Hockey League to the City of Calgary in the spring of 1980. The pinnacle of their storied history occurred in 1989 when the Flames captured the Stanley Cup. Of his numerous contributions to the game, one of his most notable efforts and role on behalf of the NHL were to find a resolution to the NHL labour dispute that forced the cancellation of the 2004-05 season. Hotchkiss served six two-year terms as chairman of the NHL Board of Governors.

Harley Hotchkiss was an avid supporter of Hockey Canada and through his efforts the Flames continue to make annual financial contributions to Hockey Canada for the continued development and growth of the game. With the investment in bringing the NHL to Calgary, the purchase of the Flames funded the creation of the Centre of Excellence that offered coaching clinics, research in hockey development and sports injuries as well as athletic scholarships to Canadian universities. The introduction of Project 75, now known as the Seaman Hotchkiss Hockey Foundation, contributed over $8 million that is distributed by Hockey Canada to benefit the game throughout the country.

His involvement in hockey reached from the grassroots to the top branch. As a young college athlete at Michigan State University, Harley Hotchkiss was a member of the 1950 Spartans varsity hockey club. His generosity for other like-minded hockey people was continuously demonstrated as he has made contributions for the construction of hockey arenas throughout Canada including Fox Valley, Saskatchewan, and Aylmer, Ontario. Harley Hotchkiss passed away on Wednesday, June 22, 2011.

PETER MAHER - Inducted 2006 - Play-by-Play

Calgary Flames play-by-play man Peter Maher was honoured by the Hockey Hall of Fame as the winner of the 2006 Foster Hewitt Memorial Award. Maher has been the voice of the Flames since the 1981-82 season. A native of Campbellton, New Brunswick, Maher's success as a hockey play-by-play voice led to his induction into the New Brunswick Sports Hall of Fame in 1996. Maher has also called World Championship games, six NHL All-Star games, and the Stanley Cup Finals in 1980, 1986, 1989 and 2004.

The award, named in honour of the late Foster Hewitt is presented in recognition of members of the radio and television industry who have made outstanding contributions to their profession and to the game of hockey.

CLIFF FLETCHER - Inducted 2004 - General Manager, 1972-91

After an outstanding 48-year career that continues in the NHL, Cliff Fletcher was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame as a Builder in 2004. Fletcher began his hockey career in 1956 with the Montreal Canadiens organization, starting as a scout under Sam Pollock. He joined the St. Louis Blues, eventually earning the role of Assistant General Manager, and helped manoeuvre the Blues into the Stanley Cup Final during the first three years of the franchise's existence. Fletcher was hired as the inaugural General Manager of the Atlanta Flames. He helped orchestrate the franchise's subsequent move from Atlanta to Calgary in time for the 1980-81 season. During Fletcher's regime with the Flames, his teams made the playoffs 16 straight seasons and finished first in their division in 1987-88, 1988-89 and 1989-90. In 1988-89, the Calgary Flames won the Stanley Cup.

Lured to Toronto in 1991, Fletcher spent six seasons as chief operating officer, president and general manager of the Maple Leafs. He was named the 1993 Executive of the Year by The Hockey News. As a team, Toronto improved by an incredible 32 points from 67 points in 1991-92 to a franchise-high 99 points in 1992-93. Following two seasons with the Tampa Bay Lightning as senior advisor to the General Manager, Fletcher was hired by the Phoenix Coyotes as executive vice-president and general manager. He is currently a senior advisor for the Toronto Maple Leafs.

GRANT FUHR - Inducted 2003 - Player, 1999-00, Goaltending Consultant, 20-02

Following a career that saw him attain over 400 NHL wins and amass five Stanley Cup championships, fittingly, Grant Fuhr was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. Although all five Cups (1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, 1990) were collected while backstopping the Edmonton Oilers, Fuhr completed his career as a member of the Calgary Flames.

On October 22, 1999, the Flames defeated the Florida Panthers and Fuhr attained his 400th career win and became only the sixth goaltender in NHL history to reach that milestone. Fuhr's accomplishments include six All-Star Game appearances, Vezina Trophy (1987), Jennings Trophy (1994) and two Canada Cup titles (1984 and 1987).

JOE MULLEN - Inducted 2000 - Player, 1985-90

In 345 career games with Calgary (1985-86 to 1989-90), Mullen recorded 388 points (190 G, 198 A). In 17 NHL seasons (1979-80 to 1996-97) with St. Louis, Calgary, Pittsburgh and Boston, the three-time Stanley Cup winner recorded 1,063 points (502 G, 561 A) in 1,062 games.

Mullen played in NHL All-Star games (1989, 1990 and 1994). He has won the Lady Byng Trophy (1987, 1989), NHL First All-Star Team (1989), NHL +/- Leader (1989), and won the Lester Patrick Trophy (1995).

MICHEL GOULET - Inducted 1998 - Scout, 2010-present

Michel Goulet, a native of Peribonka, Quebec, played 1,089 regular season NHL games scoring 548 goals, 604 assists for 1,152 points and 825 penalty minutes. He started his pro career with the Birmingham Bulls in the World Hockey Association in 1978-79. Following the NHL/WHA merger, Goulet was declared eligible for the 1979 Entry Draft and was selected by the Quebec Nordiques. He spent 11 seasons with the Nordiques before being traded to the Chicago Blackhawks during the 1989-90 season.

Goulet was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1998, alongside former teammate Peter Stastny.

Goulet's number 16 was retired by the Nordiques before a large crowd at le Colisée de Québec where he enjoyed his most productive years. Goulet won two Stanley Cups with the Colorado Avalanche in 1996 and 2001 as director of player personnel.

GUY LAPOINTE - Inducted 1993 - Assistant Coach & Scout, 1990-99

Lapointe played 16 seasons in the NHL with the Montreal Canadiens, St. Louis Blues and Boston Bruins. One of the great players in the history of the game, Lapointe captured six Stanley Cup championships with the Canadiens ('71, '73 '76, '77, '78 and

'79). Lapointe, along with teammates Serge Savard and Larry Robinson, formed one of the top defence corps in the NHL. In 884 career games, Lapointe recorded 622 points (171 G, 451 A).

LANNY McDONALD - Inducted 1992 - Player, 1981-89, Management, 1989-03

On September 21, 1992, Lanny McDonald became the first Calgary Flames player to be inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame. McDonald finished his NHL career with 500 goals, 506 assists and 1,006 points in 1,111 games—all milestone achievements. He played 492 career games with the Flames recording 406 points (215 G, 191 A). McDonald won the Bill

Masterton Trophy (1982-83), the King Clancy Memorial Trophy (1987-88) and was named NHL Man-of-the-Year in 1988-89. He still holds the Flames record for most goals in a season (66 G, 1982-83) and scored the go-ahead goal in Calgary's Stanley Cup clinching win at Montreal in 1989.

BOB JOHNSON - Inducted 1992 - Head Coach, 1982-87

Robert "Badger Bob" Johnson was one of hockey's greatest boosters both in Calgary and throughout North America. He led Calgary to the franchises first 40-win season in 1984-85 and posted a Flames coaching record of 193-155-52 in 400 games.

Johnson posted a career coaching record of 234-188-58 with Calgary (1982-83 to 1986-87) and Pittsburgh (1990-91). He led the Penguins to a Stanley Cup championship in 1991. "It's a great day for hockey" is a remark hockey fans will always remember.

GLENN HALL - Inducted 1975 - Goaltending Consultant, 1988-00

During his 18 seasons in the NHL, Glenn "Mr. Goalie" Hall posted a 2.51 GAA and was consistently recognized as a top goaltender, being selected to the All-Star Team 11 times. Hall led the NHL in shutouts for six seasons, including his rookie campaign when he won the Calder Trophy and had 84 regular season career shutouts. Hall still holds the record for most consecutive games by a goaltender, with 502, and appeared in 906 league games. He captured three Vezina Trophies, the Conn Smythe Trophy, one Stanley Cup and 13 All-Star Game appearances. In 1988 the Chicago Blackhawks retired Hall's jersey.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Since its creation in 1983, the Flames Foundation for Life has served as the charitable arm of the Calgary Flames Hockey Club, offering much-needed funding to varied and far-reaching charities. Continuously evolving over its years in operation, the Flames Foundation now provides millions of dollars in contributions to these key pillars: amateur and grassroots sports, health, medical research and education. In keeping with the original mandate of the ownership group, the Flames Foundation for Life strives to bring positive change to the lives of thousands of southern Albertans.

READING...GIVE IT A SHOT!

Entering into its 18th season is the Reading...Give it a Shot! program. This program promotes the importance of literacy for grades 4, 5 and 6 students and rewards them with Flames-themed bookmarks for every 100 minutes of reading.

Schools involved in the program are entered into a draw to receive a visit from Flames players. Players do two school visits a season where they answer questions and speak to the students to further reinforce the positive effects of literacy.

Harvey the Hound also promotes literacy to younger students eager to participate in the program. Harvey has his own set of bookmarks that students from kindergarten through grades 3 can collect for achieving their own reading goals.

Over 24,000 students participated last season in both programs. Students who meet their goals or collect all 24 bookmarks are rewarded with tickets to a Flames game or Flames jersey.

For more information or to get your school involved please visit: http://cepfoundation.com/initiatives/rgis_about.html

ENMAX POND HOCKEY

For over 15 years, the Calgary Flames have teamed up with ENMAX Energy and Calgary Hockey Development to match minor hockey players with their Flames heroes. Flames players visit two different communities around the Calgary area for a game of pond hockey with a lucky minor hockey team. ENMAX Pond Hockey has reached over 10,000 athletes since the initiation of the program.

To register your minor hockey team in the program for a chance to play with the pros please visit:

WHEELCHAIR HOCKEY GAME

Every year the Flames take their game off-site to the Gordon Townsend School in the Alberta Children's Hospital for a game of wheelchair hockey. In the 34 years that the players have participated, the Townsend Tigers stand undefeated. Beesley announces the game and Harvey the Hound acts as the referee. Following the game, the players sign autographs for the winning champions.

ALBERTA CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL HOLIDAY VISIT

Each December, the Flames team, their significant others and Harvey the Hound visit the Alberta Children's Hospital to bring some holiday cheer to its patients. The players bring stuffed Harvey the Hound dolls and blankets to hand out and create crafts with the children.

PLAYER PROGRAMS

Through active community and player relations the Calgary Flames continue to endeavour, to develop and implement impactful and high profile community relations programs while establishing relationships with schools, youth sports, minor hockey and other charitable foundations.

While the Flames team programs continue to give back to the community, many Flames players also have personal commitments to charities and initiatives of their choosing. The players listed below have taken on additional personal commitments.

T. J. BRODIE - SKATE IN STRIDES

T.J. Brodie has aligned with Cystic Fibrosis Canada for his new program, T.J. Brodie - Skate in Strides. Brodie has created custom skate guards for sale at FanAttic stores and online. These skate guards will be sold for $20. The proceeds will be directed to Cystic Fibrosis Canada and Brodie will match those proceeds. The Flames Foundation for Life matches all player program donations making the total donation to Cystic Fibrosis Canada for each pair of skate guards sold, $30.

Brodie is also a huge advocate for organ donation and urges everyone to register as an organ donor.

MATT STAJAN - THE EMERSON STAJAN FOUNDATION

Matt Stajan is the Flames Ambassador for the Alberta Children's Hospital. Stajan also donates a set of season's tickets to the hospital to distribute to patients, families and volunteers. Stajan and his wife Katie also attend various events and volunteer with the hospital.

This season, Matt and Katie have created a Foundation in memory of their son. For each point Stajan collects over the season, he will donate $200 to the Emerson Stajan Foundation which will benefit the NICU at Foothills Hospital and the Alberta Children's Hospital. They are also planning their first annual event, An Evening Under the Stars Charity Gala in January to raise funds for the Emerson Stajan Foundation.

MIKAEL BACKLUND - THE ALS SOCIETY OF ALBERTA

This season, Mikael Backlund has chosen to align himself with the ALS Society of Alberta, an organization near to him and his girlfriend's hearts. Backlund will donate $200 for every point earned to the ALS Society of Alberta and will act as a spokesperson for the organization, attending events and promoting their cause.

Backlund also has a close relationship with the Kids Cancer Care Foundation and will continue to support them by attending various events and through donating tickets to games followed by a meet and greet with Backlund.

CURTIS GLENCROSS - GLENCROSS INVITATIONAL CHARITY ROUGHSTOCK EVENT

Curtis Glencross hosts the Glencross Invitational Charity Roughstock Event in Red Deer, Alberta each August. This year marked this third annual poker tournament and roughstock rodeo event. Glencross and his family and friends organize all aspects of the event and have raised more than $750,000 over the past three years.

Funds raised at the event are directed toward the Ronald McDonald House Central Alberta and to Minor Hockey.

MARK GIORDANO - TEAM GIORDANO PROJECT

Mark Giordano has created a new initiative to kick off the season. Giordano and his wife Lauren have created the Team Giordano Project where they have selected three Calgary schools to receive funding over the next three years from the Giordanos which is then matched by the Flames Foundation for Life.

Through this funding, the schools will not only receive items such as new gym equipment or computers but they will also receive visits and mentorship from Mark and Lauren. Giordano will organize floor hockey games and visits to Flames practices. The kids will also receive a Gio journal where they can learn about setting goals and track different accomplishments that help them work towards being the best they can be.
